TITLE: Stodola Pumpa
ORIGIN: Czechoslovakia
SOURCE: Sing Along 1983

Translation:
Stodola = barn or house
Pumpa = pump

Actions:
Double circle/Partner game
Actions are linked to rhythmic units.

First Tika-ti: ti-    slap right hands together ka    slap back of own right hand with own left hand ti    slap right hands together

Second Tika-ti in a row, swap hands (slap LH together etc)

Ti-ti: one step to the right, then feet together, so that there is a new partner

Final ti: clap hands above head

These actions can also work in a single circle. Instead of stepping to right on ti-ti, students turn around in 180° to face the person who was originally behind them.